Even great parents can forget.

Every year dozens of children and babies get left in hot cars and die from heatstroke. It could happen to anyone. Even you. So, be extra careful and always check the backseat before you walk away.

where's baby?
Look before you lock.

safercar.gov/heatstroke

#checkforbaby